

PROOFS

OF THE

Pedigree of JOHN BRIDGES

HARBLEDOWN.

- No. 1. THE Register of St. Michael, Harbledown, will prove the Marriages and Burials.
- A Book from the Will Office, Canterbury, will be produced to shew that his Will was proved there, 22 Jan. 1646, by John and Thomas Bridges, Sons and Executors of the said Testor.
- The Will itself is lost.
- No. 2. The Register of Harbledown will prove the Baptism and Marriage.
- His Will, from the Will Office, Canterbury, will prove his Issue.
- No. 3. The Register of the Parish of St. Nicholas at Wade will prove his Marriage and Burial.
- His Will will also be produced from Canterbury.
- No. 4. His Father's Will—Register of St. Nicholas at Wade—and his own Will from Canterbury.
- No. 5. Letters of Administration granted to his Brother Thomas in 1669, from the Will Office, Canterbury.
- No. 6. The Register of Harbledown will prove the Baptism.
- The Rest of the Descent from this Edward is already before the Committee.
- No. 7. The Register of Harbledown will be produced to prove his Birth and Marriage, and the Births of his Children; and the Register of St. Nicholas at Wade, to prove his Burial.
- No. 8. The Register of Harbledown will prove his Marriage, and the Births of his Children.
- The Will of his Wife, from the Will Office, Canterbury, will prove his Burial, and all the Issue from him that appears in this Pedigree.
- No. 9. The Register of St. Nicholas at Wade proves his Burial; and an original Pedigree, received from one of the present Representatives of the Family in the Isle of Thanet, proves the Issue from him.

No. 10.

No. 10. Register of Harbledown.

No. 11. By the Register of Marriage Licences from 1670 to 1673 remaining in the Office, Canterbury, it appears, that on June 1, 1672, Edward Bridges, of the Parish of St. Nicholas at Wade, Husbandman, and a Batchelor, aged 24, his Parents dead, obtained a Licence to marry with Elizabeth Bridges, of the same Parish, Widow, to be married at St. John's, in the said Island.

The Licence for his second Marriage with Margery Kennet, of Birchington, in the said Island, Maiden, of the Age of 25, is also recorded in the same Office, and is dated 10 May, 1680.

An Inscription on a Tomb in the Church-yard of St. Nicholas proves his Death, and Issue by both Wives.

The remaining Part of this Descent is taken from the Pedigree referred to in No. 9.

No. 12. A Monument in St. Nicholas' Church, whereon are the Arms of the Chandos Family, without any Distinction, proves the Marriage, Burial, and Issue.

No. 13. Register of Harbledown.

Book of Marriage Licences, in the Office, Canterbury, proves that, 1639, Feb. 11, appeared personally, Thomas Violet, of the City of Canterbury, Barber, a Batchelor, of the Age of 27 or 28, and alleged that he intended to marry with Mary Bridges *, of the Parish of St. Michael, Harbledown, Virgin, of the Age of 22, Daughter of John Bridge †, who is hereunto consenting.

His Will from the same Office.
